

Ellen Yeo

Assistant Planner

With enthusiasm and an eye for detail, Ellen uses her local authority experience to help her clients efficiently navigate the planning system.

MSc International Planning and Development - Cardiff University

Licentiate member of the Royal Town Planning Institute

Ellen joined Planning Potential in March 2024 and as a Licentiate member of the Royal Town Planning Institute (RTPI) is working towards her APC. She previously worked in local authority planning as a graduate planning officer.

Ellen assists colleagues with research, planning policy analysis, planning appraisals and the preparation, submission, and monitoring of planning application and appeals.

Outside of work, Ellen enjoys activities including running and cold-water swimming, as well as travelling to experience new places and landscapes.
